

Hosting sponsor TrygFonden

IAHAIO SYMPOSIUM 2015 COPENHAGEN MAY 28-30

Symposium Theme: "Advancing HAI Beyond Boundaries: Developing a Road Map Toward the Future"

Plenaries

Prof. dr. Brinda Jegatheesan, University of Washington, USA: HAI Beyond Boundaries and Societies
Dr. Rainer Wohlfahrt, President, ESAAT (European Society for Animal-Assisted Therapy), Germany:
AAI and Quality Assurance
Michael Kaufmann, Director, Green Chimneys, USA: AAI Longevity and Sustainability.
Prof. dr. Rebecca Johnson, IAHAIO President, University of Missouri-Columbia, USA: HAI & AAI, Ageing Society, Global Perspectives
Dr. Karen Theoborg, Denmark: HAI & AAI, Ageing Society, Denmark

Join us to learn more about HAI, discuss current and future directions in practice and research and enjoy excellent networking and social events
Registration closing
date May 3rd

Workshops

1. Developing Standards for Education and Training in Animal-Assisted Interventions (AAI)
2. Developing a Code of Practice for Animal Care, Welfare and Wellbeing in AAI
Speaker: Elizabeth Ormerod, BVH, MRCV, FRSA, Animal Welfare in AAI

Members $450/£294, Non-members $550/£480, Students $275/£240

Detailed program and further info at www.iahai.org

IAHAIO is grateful for sponsorships received in support of this event

Your Pet, Our Passion®
www.purina.com

MARS
petcare

A better world for pets.